

PLEASE

Senior Citizens,

A Great need: Your thinking, your experience, your wisdom...

Write a letter to single Moms who have teenagers...

...Give your best advice...your experience.

Our youth...are amateurs in this life...

Moms too...are amateurs. They often think Love is all teenagers' need. NOT TRUE.

You are the KEY. We absolutely need to get our act together.

Your thinking and opinions will be shared on the Internet...Yep, for the entire world to see.

Trust me. I've been a Youth Counselor more years than I can count. You and I have a lot more to give...not to be forgotten!

My counseling philosophy is positively optimistic...I believe:

"Every-problem-has-a-solution."

Your little-bits-of-wisdom will crack-the-code. Give us bragging rights.

"WE HAVE THE BEST SCHOOLS IN THE WORLD."

Write each letter...20 to 100 words on each subject.

Focus on POWER WORDS; words that teenagers are begging for...Confidence, courage, education, failure, fear, feelings, goals, happiness, listening, love, mistakes, marriage, optimism, parenting, reading, teaching, and writing etc.

Forget about Political-Correctness. It's your choice...sign your name and age if you like or make it anonymous...
